

Exercise: Monitor Fires in Uttarakhand

1. Go To NASA Worldview and click on Add Layer.
2. Type Fires in the Search Window.
3. Select the following from the data product list:

Fires and Thermal Anomalies
(Day and Night 375 m)
NOAA-21 VIIRS

Fires and Thermal Anomalies
(Day and Night 375 m)
NOAA-20 VIIRS

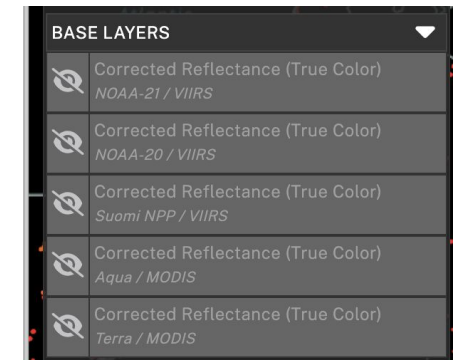

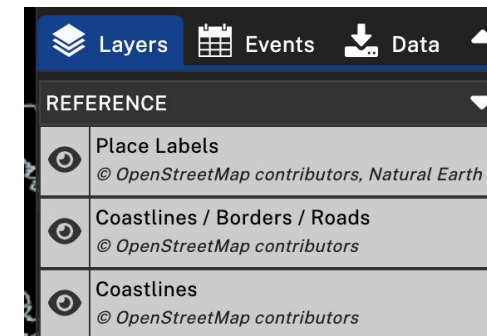

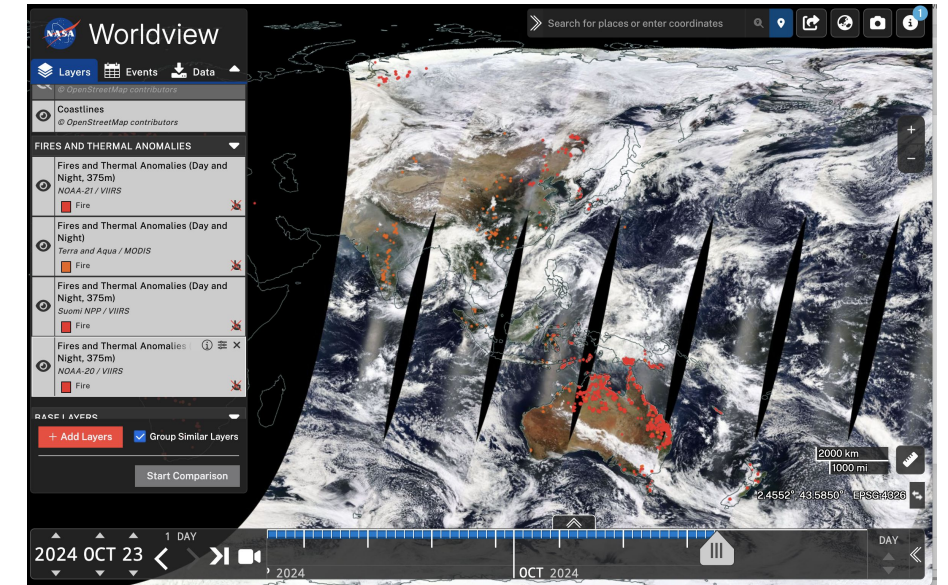

Fires and Thermal Anomalies
(Day and Night 375 m)
Suomi NPP VIIRS

Fires and Thermal Anomalies
(Day and Night)
Terra and Aqua/MODIS

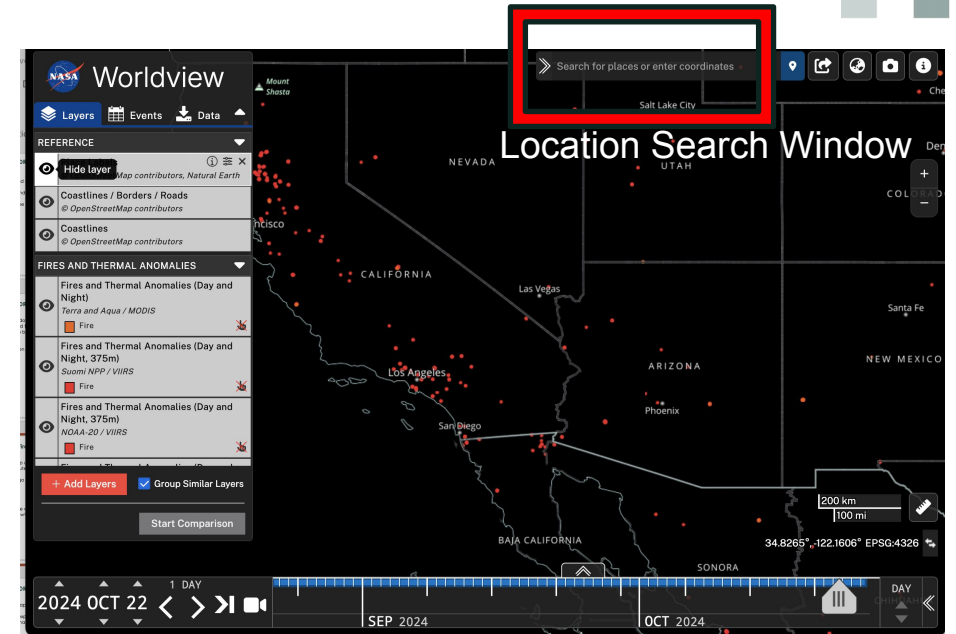

Exercise: Monitor Fires in Panjab/Haryana

4. Close the Layer Selection window
 - You will see the layers added to the Layer Panel
 - Zoom in and out of the map by using your computer mouse.
5. Turn all the REFERENCE layers on and BASE LAYERS off.

Exercise: Monitor Fires in Uttarakhand

6. Zoom to India on the map using +/- sign on the top right and using the computer mouse.
7. In the search window on the top right type 'That, Uttarakhand'.
8. Using the time selection bar, go to 1 May 2024.
9. Now zoom in further to the region.

Drag to move
along the timeline

Exercise: Monitor Fires in Uttarakhand

10. Using the '1 Day' arrows move from 1 to 7 May, one day at a time.
11. Which day do you see the maximum spread of fires near That?
12. Click on any fire spot (red dot) to see the details about the fire at that location.
13. Now examine smoke by turning the true color images on from the BASE LAYERS – for example start with Suomi NPP VIIRS image on. Explore how Smoke spreads between 1 to 7 May.

Explore: Monitor fires in the area/time of your interest

